

MORE 'BURRS' ARE SEIZED.

Taken from Horses in Neighborhood of Madison Square Garden.

S. P. C. A. AGENTS ACTIVE

Superintendent Haines of the Society Says that the Custom Must Cease.

Another raid was made on the turn outs of the fashionable society enthusiasts attending the Horse Show, and the agents of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals removed six more pairs of "burrs" from the mouths of horses attached to private carriages outside of Madison Square Garden.

"The cruelties of fashion will have to cease," said President John P. Haines, of the animal society, when seen about the matter. "We intend to stop the use of burr bits. If what we are doing at present proves ineffective we will adopt surer and harsher methods."

According to Section 65 of the Penal Code it is a misdemeanor to torture or unjustifiably injure any animal, and the "surer" and "harsher" methods which can be resorted to by the society is the punishment of the offenders by imprisonment for more than one year or a fine of not more than $50, or by both.

Among those who were found yesterday to be using burrs were Walter E. Marquand, No. 695 Lexington avenue; John E. Alexander, No. 26 West Thirty-eighth street; Mrs. Edward L. Norton, No. 256 West Seventy-fourth street; Mrs. Walter Watson, No. 32 West Fifty-second street; David Johnson, No. 145 West Forty-third street; and J. B. Simon, No. 765 Fifth avenue.

The use of burrs on bits first became fashionable several years ago, but through the efforts of the S. P. C. A. the custom was eventually suppressed and the practice was not again resorted to until recently. The society has seized eighteen pairs of burrs within the past week from the harness of some of the most fashionable people in the city.

CELL DOORS YAWN FOR FERNACHON.

ABOUT TO BE DISCHARGED, HE IS AGAIN ACCUSED.

Masonic Leader Appears to Prosecute and Prisoner's Rich Wife Pleads in Court.

Joseph Louis Fernachon's fortunes took a change for the worse to-day, and he will not only have to serve the sentence of thirty days in the Newark jail for begging, but stands a good chance of occupying a cell in the Tombs. The former clubman's wealthy wife appeared before Judge Lambert today and tearfully pleaded for his release. The judge was about to accede to the woman's plea when the case assumed an entirely new phase.

All through their troubles the young couple have had the sympathy of the public and the court, but now it seems Fernachon's operations were not confined by his own conscience. From his desk, in the office of the New York Tribune, he wrote a letter to the editor of the New York Tribune, in which he stated that he was a member of the Masonic Lodge No. 4, of New Rochelle, N. Y., and also represented himself as an agent for the Masonic History Co., of 63 Broadway street, New York. He stated that the chairman secured $2 from him under false pretences. Fernachon called at Tobin's home, No. 25 Mount Pleasant avenue, Newark, and claimed to be a member of the Masonic Lodge No. 4, of New Rochelle, N. Y., and also represented himself as an agent for the Masonic History Co., of 63 Broadway street, New York. He stated that the chairman secured $2 from him under false pretences.

At the time Mr. Tobin says he had a large sum of money lying upon his desk, and the same night two men, one of whom he identified as Fernachon, attempted to break into his home. He informed Judge Lambert that he would prefer a charge against Fernachon as soon as he was released, and also that the Masonic History Co. would have him extradited to New York on the charge of securing money under false pretences. He stated that he had been married to a woman named Alice, who was a native of New York, and that she was a member of the same Masonic lodge as he was.

Full of hope that her ambition to secure her husband's release was about to be accomplished, the prospect of a longer term for him was too great a blow. She was carried to her carriage in a faint.

At the time Mr. Tobin says he had a large sum of money lying upon his desk, and the same night two men, one of whom he identified as Fernachon, attempted to break into his home. He informed Judge Lambert that he would prefer a charge against Fernachon as soon as he was released, and also that the Masonic History Co. would have him extradited to New York on the charge of securing money under false pretences.

Full of hope that her ambition to secure her husband's release was about to be accomplished, the prospect of a longer term for him was too great a blow. She was carried to her carriage in a faint.

AMMON IN A RAGE.

Furious Over Production of a Letter When Before a Referee.

Col. Robert A. Ammon, alleged to be implicated in the disposition of the Miller Syndicate of the water, being cross examined before Referee Whitaker, at No. 141 Broadway, denied that he had ever had any connection with Mitchell & Co., of No. 90 Broadway.

He was then handed a letter and asked if it was in his handwriting. He changed countenance on viewing the communication, and then, clutching it tightly in his fist, cried:

"I don't propose to give this letter up. It was stolen from me. It's a part of a dirty blackmailing scheme. He worked himself into a fury over the production of the letter, and with much difficulty that the letter was recovered. In the communication Ammon practically admitted his connection with the Mitchell & Co. firm.

An adjournment was taken until next Tuesday.

A Story Worth Reading.

When you start home on the long journey from the office, tired out, at night, nothing takes your mind off your work and makes the journey pass so quickly as a rattling good story of love and adventure. You will find such a story when you open your Evening World, next Monday. The story is "The Puppet Crown," and it's a winner.

THIS YEAR'S SHOW MADE BY OTHER CITIES; YARDS OF BLUE RIBBON FOR THE LAWSONS.

SOCIETY LEADERS WHO ARE PROMINENT AT THE HORSE SHOW.

PROGRAMME FOR THIS EVENING.

8:30 P. M. — Judging thirteen horses shown before Judge Whitaker, with appointments to count, class 119.
9:15 P. M. — Judging single-harness horses not exceeding 15.2 hands for the championship, class 52.
9:45 P. M. — Judging single-harness horses exceeding 15.2 hands for the championship, class 53.
9:50 P. M. — Judging pairs of harness horses not exceeding 15.2 hands for the championship, class 54.
9:55 P. M. — Judging pairs of harness horses exceeding 15.2 hands for the championship, class 55.
10:00 P. M. — Judging hunters or jumpers for the heavy, medium and light-weight championships, class 106.

Watt Jr.'s Toronto and Red Fox the two and Mrs. W. H. Johnston's Sapphire and Sky Lark the yellow.

Seamless Wins a Prize.

A herd of registered Shetland ponies, exhibited by Mr. Watt, was awarded a blue ribbon. Five ponies were shown. George Pepper's Glenmore got the blue for geldings suitable for cavalry charges. Charles Macdonald, owned by Lawrence Jones, won second prize and Fine Corned, owned by the Dutchman Major Flower, and Col. Walker fourth.

The prize ponies and thoroughbreds with the millinery and the Department of Street-Cleaning brigades. For pairs shown before victors the first prize went to Strauss & Hixler's Glenwood and Glenview. John Atkinson, Alice and Lord, Dufferin, were second, the Runson Farm's pair, Comet and Cyclone, third, and the Runson Farm's pair, Comet and Cyclone, fourth.

The prize ponies and thoroughbreds with the millinery and the Department of Street-Cleaning brigades. For pairs shown before victors the first prize went to Strauss & Hixler's Glenwood and Glenview. John Atkinson, Alice and Lord, Dufferin, were second, the Runson Farm's pair, Comet and Cyclone, third, and the Runson Farm's pair, Comet and Cyclone, fourth.

The prize ponies and thoroughbreds with the millinery and the Department of Street-Cleaning brigades. For pairs shown before victors the first prize went to Strauss & Hixler's Glenwood and Glenview. John Atkinson, Alice and Lord, Dufferin, were second, the Runson Farm's pair, Comet and Cyclone, third, and the Runson Farm's pair, Comet and Cyclone, fourth.

Lawson Family Winners.

Perhaps the most successful exhibitors of the week were the Lawsons, of Boston. Seven of this family, Thomas W. and his wife and five of their sons and daughters, showed their horses and carriages. They have won more blue ribbons than any of the other private exhibitors.

The closing day has a large and interesting programme. It will be the championship day. Five or six events have been set aside for them to compete in side by side, and the judges will have a hard time making the selections for the winners of the championship colors, which are blue, red and yellow.

The afternoon programme will close with a parade of all the winners around the tan bark arena, and the show will wind up in the evening with the hunters for all weights.

Alfred G. Vanderbilt will make his final try during the day for a blue ribbon. He has won three reds, two whites, for the fourth or highly commended degree. He is now anxious for first honors, and will make the try for it with U. G. I. and Sky High, his favorite pair.

Gould Wins Three Straight Blues.

Frank Jay Gould, who won two blues yesterday, will go in for three straight to-day. He has his prize-winner, Sandringham, entered for championship honors, and also will show her with her mate, Burlington, before a phaeton.

Mrs. Harriet R. Wimsatt, otherwise Miss Marie Wilson, formerly of the "Floradora" sextet, has her high-steppers, Mystic and Marigold, down for two events to-day, and Anna Field, who has been gained quickly on her previous entries, is again a contestant.

With the judging of ponies the last day of the show opened at 10 o'clock this morning. In the opening class for ponies other than Shetlands, Doncaster Model, belonging to Robert Whitworth, of England, won. T. L. Watt Jr.'s James, of England, won. T. L. Watt Jr.'s James, of England, won. T. L. Watt Jr.'s James, of England, won.

With the judging of ponies the last day of the show opened at 10 o'clock this morning. In the opening class for ponies other than Shetlands, Doncaster Model, belonging to Robert Whitworth, of England, won. T. L. Watt Jr.'s James, of England, won. T. L. Watt Jr.'s James, of England, won.

With the judging of ponies the last day of the show opened at 10 o'clock this morning. In the opening class for ponies other than Shetlands, Doncaster Model, belonging to Robert Whitworth, of England, won. T. L. Watt Jr.'s James, of England, won. T. L. Watt Jr.'s James, of England, won.

With the judging of ponies the last day of the show opened at 10 o'clock this morning. In the opening class for ponies other than Shetlands, Doncaster Model, belonging to Robert Whitworth, of England, won. T. L. Watt Jr.'s James, of England, won. T. L. Watt Jr.'s James, of England, won.

With the judging of ponies the last day of the show opened at 10 o'clock this morning. In the opening class for ponies other than Shetlands, Doncaster Model, belonging to Robert Whitworth, of England, won. T. L. Watt Jr.'s James, of England, won. T. L. Watt Jr.'s James, of England, won.

RAPID STRIDES TOWARD END OF THE BIG STRIKE.

Committee of Union Men Sent the New Proposal of Terms to General Manager Platt.

Progress toward the close of the strike on the New York, New Haven and Hartford road has been somewhat rapid to-day.

Following the discord which divided the strikers into two factions, 100 members of the Empire City Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen met in Webster Hall. After a two-hour conference, in which Grand Master Morrissey advised the men to return to work, they agreed upon a proposal that is likely to end the stop.

A committee was sent to General Manager Platt with the proposal that the men return to work at once on the condition that all the strikers be restored to their places and that resumption of operations be followed by an investigation by the company of the grievances of the employees. The committee is to confer with Mr. Platt and report to the strikers later in the day.

First Accident of Strike.

There was a small accident in the Willis avenue yards this morning owing to the carelessness of a switchman. He misunderstood a signal while trying to help cranks up a train of empty cars, and threw the switch at the wrong time. Five of the cars ran off the track.

ODELL POOH-POOHS EXCISE QUESTION.

"SMALLEST PART OF MY DAILY THOUGHT," HE SAYS.

Governor Here, but Not Haines—Senator Wilcox Says He Doesn't Know What We Want.

Senator John Haines, who was expected down from his home in Canandaigua today, did not come, and there was no conference on the Railroads law situation.

Gov. Odell came to town with his wife and his military secretary, Major John Kern Bird. They went to the Fifth Avenue Hotel.

"No politics in this visit," said the Governor. "I came down to go to the theatre and will return to my home in Newburg tonight."

When asked about the proposed Haines law amendments he said: "You people down here don't seem to know what you want. We people up State have to look out for you, and we are going to be careful about it."

Success invariably follows in the track of the Sunday World Wants.

COST OF THE STRIKE TO IMPAIRED TRADE.

Loss to business in cities affected by the strike—
$1,000,000 per day for four days.....	$4,000,000
Loss to the Railroad Company.....	500,000
Loss to strikers in wages.....	10,000
Number of cars tied up.....	1,500
Number of strikers.....	700
Number of union men.....	250
Number of men returned to work.....	60
Number of new men employed.....	220

and tipped over. The switchman was slightly hurt. The strikers say that the men return to work at once on the condition that all the strikers be restored to their places and that resumption of operations be followed by an investigation by the company of the grievances of the employees. The committee is to confer with Mr. Platt and report to the strikers later in the day.

One freight train was sent out of the yards early this morning. It is called the Cannon Ball Express, and started for Providence. The yard looked pretty busy. The railroad people said that they had 165 men at work in the yard and that the rest of the 175 whom they had employed had been sent to other points. Seventy-five were at the Oak Point yard. Only one of the strikers has gone back to work. The strikers say they yielded to the importunities of his wife. On the other hand, they say that six of the new men have quit. The officials deny this.

The yard is still fearfully blocked with cars and will continue to be until the strike is broken in other parts; no matter how many men are employed here the yard cannot be cleared up. It was announced this morning that Henry Williams had died in Roosevelt Hospital. Williams was formerly an assistant yardmaster in the Oak Point yards, and was one of the men on account of whose discharge the strike took place. Williams had obtained work with the New York Central as a switchman, and last night he was fatally injured while climbing on a moving train on Eleventh avenue.

One loaded Lehigh Valley flat was unloaded this morning at the Willis avenue yards, and a flat was loaded with cars and started for the terminal of the New Jersey Central Railroad. The morning milk train was delayed for two hours and a quantity of other freight was added to it. It was finally started, but just outside the river yards it was struck by a freight train, and went in a body to the office of Mr. Wardrup. The strike was a little affair for its size, and within a week, as it were, they wanted something to eat, and got it.

DEMOCRATIC CLUB OFFICERS

They Will Be Elected at the Annual Meeting on Dec. 2.

A circular letter has been sent to all members of the Democratic Club by Secretary William E. Wyatt setting forth that he has received the following nominations for officers and governors, which will be voted upon at the annual meeting of the club on Monday, Dec. 2: For President, John Fox; for Vice-President, Cord Meyer; for Second Vice-President, Lewis Nixon; for Treasurer, Wendell P. Hahn; for Secretary, William E. Wyatt; for Corresponding Secretary, Adrian T. Klerman; for members of the Board of Governors, terms to expire in December, 1904, Richard Croker, Thomas E. Crimmins, John W. Keller and John J. Scannell.

The annual report shows that the receipts amounted to $157,186.75 and the payments $151,658.19.

SHIPPING NEWS.

ALMANAC FOR TO-DAY.
Sun rises, 6:53; Sun sets, 1:37; Moon rises, 3:49.
TIDE TABLE.
High Water, 11:12; Low Water, 5:13.
Sandy Hook, 4:42; 5:13; 11:12; 11:37.
Governor's Pier, 7:00; 7:21; 1:14; 1:18.
Hell Gate, 7:00; 7:21; 1:14; 1:18.

PORT OF NEW YORK.

ARRIVED.
Graf Waldersee, from Hamburg.
Graf Waldersee, from Hamburg.
Graf Waldersee, from Hamburg.
Graf Waldersee, from Hamburg.
Graf Waldersee, from Hamburg.
Graf Waldersee, from Hamburg.
Graf Waldersee, from Hamburg.
Graf Waldersee, from Hamburg.
Graf Waldersee, from Hamburg.
Graf Waldersee, from Hamburg.

INCOMING STEAMSHIPS.

TO-NAY.
Mitsui, from Shanghai.
Panama, from Panama.
Panama, from Panama.
Panama, from Panama.
Panama, from Panama.
Panama, from Panama.
Panama, from Panama.
Panama, from Panama.
Panama, from Panama.
Panama, from Panama.

OUTGOING STEAMSHIPS.

SAILED TO-DAY.
Mitsui, to Shanghai.
Panama, to Panama.
Panama, to Panama.
Panama, to Panama.
Panama, to Panama.
Panama, to Panama.
Panama, to Panama.
Panama, to Panama.
Panama, to Panama.
Panama, to Panama.

WHERE AND WHEN TO ADVERTISE.

Now. In the Sunday World Want sheet.

FAMILY A RUBBER GANG EIGHT MAY BE DEAD IN MINE

Father and Mother Leading Church Members and in High Esteem.

SON MAKES CONFESSION. RESCUERS DRIVEN BACK.

"Receivers" in Various Cities of Kansas Disposed of the Plunder.

PITTSBURG, Kan., Nov. 23.—George Lane and family, consisting of his wife, a fourteen-year-old daughter, and an adopted son eighteen years old, have been arrested here charged with being leaders of a gang that has been systematically robbing merchants of this city for the past year.

Lane and his wife are prominent in society and church work. They have a beautiful home in West Fourth street, where nearly a thousand dollars worth of the stolen goods were found.

It is charged that the boy would conceal himself in a store and be locked in when the store was closed, and then in the night he would open the rear door, after which the robbery was easy.

The arrest was caused by the boy being captured in a store and confessing. Lane is a contracting builder by trade and has always been considered a respectable citizen. It is said that several accomplices in neighboring cities have been selling stolen goods from the Lanes.

At a distance of about 100 miles from the mine, a party consisting of experienced miners led by Assistant Superintendent King entered the mine to rescue the party of eight.

The large fan in the West mine had been started at an early hour and it was thought that all cases originating from there in the Ruby mine had been forced from the main portion and it was considered safe to enter.

All efforts are being used to recover the bodies of the missing party, but no hopes are entertained that any of them will be recovered alive.

Buried Under Falling Bricks.

WATERLOO, N. Y., Nov. 23.—Charles Hill, a night fireman at the Columbia Distilling Company's plant, was buried under hundreds of bricks which fell through the roof of the building, carrying with it two iron chimneys, early to-day. He will die.

BEARS MARITAL WOE TO JUSTICE'S ALTAR

HUMBLY LAYS IT BEFORE ERMINE AND WOOLPACK.

Her Supposed Honey Sweetness Became Like Unto a Spray of Vines.

TOPEKA, Kan., Nov. 23.—Dr. Sherman Foote, of Gas City, has sued his wife for divorce. The petition, filed this morning, begins with the following statement:

"Comes now the plaintiff to the altar of justice bearing his sorrow and woe, which he humbly lays down before the ermine and the woolpack. He declares with solemn truth that he has been for more than one year past an actual resident in good faith of the State of Kansas, whose valiant sons await him in the arms of the State police court, this morning, begins with the following statement:

"Comes now the plaintiff to the altar of justice bearing his sorrow and woe, which he humbly lays down before the ermine and the woolpack. He declares with solemn truth that he has been for more than one year past an actual resident in good faith of the State of Kansas, whose valiant sons await him in the arms of the State police court, this morning, begins with the following statement:

"Comes now the plaintiff to the altar of justice bearing his sorrow and woe, which he humbly lays down before the ermine and the woolpack. He declares with solemn truth that he has been for more than one year past an actual resident in good faith of the State of Kansas, whose valiant sons await him in the arms of the State police court, this morning, begins with the following statement:

"Comes now the plaintiff to the altar of justice bearing his sorrow and woe, which he humbly lays down before the ermine and the woolpack. He declares with solemn truth that he has been for more than one year past an actual resident in good faith of the State of Kansas, whose valiant sons await him in the arms of the State police court, this morning, begins with the following statement:

"Comes now the plaintiff to the altar of justice bearing his sorrow and woe, which he humbly lays down before the ermine and the woolpack. He declares with solemn truth that he has been for more than one year past an actual resident in good faith of the State of Kansas, whose valiant sons await him in the arms of the State police court, this morning, begins with the following statement:

"Comes now the plaintiff to the altar of justice bearing his sorrow and woe, which he humbly lays down before the ermine and the woolpack. He declares with solemn truth that he has been for more than one year past an actual resident in good faith of the State of Kansas, whose valiant sons await him in the arms of the State police court, this morning, begins with the following statement:

"Comes now the plaintiff to the altar of justice bearing his sorrow and woe, which he humbly lays down before the ermine and the woolpack. He declares with solemn truth that he has been for more than one year past an actual resident in good faith of the State of Kansas, whose valiant sons await him in the arms of the State police court, this morning, begins with the following statement:

"Comes now the plaintiff to the altar of justice bearing his sorrow and woe, which he humbly lays down before the ermine and the woolpack. He declares with solemn truth that he has been for more than one year past an actual resident in good faith of the State of Kansas, whose valiant sons await him in the arms of the State police court, this morning, begins with the following statement:

"Comes now the plaintiff to the altar of justice bearing his sorrow and woe, which he humbly lays down before the ermine and the woolpack. He declares with solemn truth that he has been for more than one year past an actual resident in good faith of the State of Kansas, whose valiant sons await him in the arms of the State police court, this morning, begins with the following statement:

"Comes now the plaintiff to the altar of justice bearing his sorrow and woe, which he humbly lays down before the ermine and the woolpack. He declares with solemn truth that he has been for more than one year past an actual resident in good faith of the State of Kansas, whose valiant sons await him in the arms of the State police court, this morning, begins with the following statement:

"Comes now the plaintiff to the altar of justice bearing his sorrow and woe, which he humbly lays down before the ermine and the woolpack. He declares with solemn truth that he has been for more than one year past an actual resident in good faith of the State of Kansas, whose valiant sons await him in the arms of the State police court, this morning, begins with the following statement:

"Comes now the plaintiff to the altar of justice bearing his sorrow and woe, which he humbly lays down before the ermine and the woolpack. He declares with solemn truth that he has been for more than one year past an actual resident in good faith of the State of Kansas, whose valiant sons await him in the arms of the State police court, this morning, begins with the following statement:

"Comes now the plaintiff to the altar of justice bearing his sorrow and woe, which he humbly lays down before the ermine and the woolpack. He declares with solemn truth that he has been for more than one year past an actual resident in good faith of the State of Kansas, whose valiant sons await him in the arms of the State police court, this morning, begins with the following statement:

"Comes now the plaintiff to the altar of justice bearing his sorrow and woe, which he humbly lays down before the ermine and the woolpack. He declares with solemn truth that he has been for more than one year past an actual resident in good faith of the State of Kansas, whose valiant sons await him in the arms of the State police court, this morning, begins with the following statement:

"Comes now the plaintiff to the altar of justice bearing his sorrow and woe, which he humbly lays down before the ermine and the woolpack. He declares with solemn truth that he has been for more than one year past an actual resident in good faith of the State of Kansas, whose valiant sons await him in the arms of the State police court, this morning, begins with the following statement:

"Comes now the plaintiff to the altar of justice bearing his sorrow and woe, which he humbly lays down before the ermine and the woolpack. He declares with solemn truth that he has been for more than one year past an actual resident in good faith of the State of Kansas, whose valiant sons await him in the arms of the State police court, this morning, begins with the following statement:

"Comes now the plaintiff to the altar of justice bearing his sorrow and woe, which he humbly lays down before the ermine and the woolpack. He declares with solemn truth that he has been for more than one year past an actual resident in good faith of the State of Kansas, whose valiant sons await him in the arms of the State police court, this morning, begins with the following statement:

"Comes now the plaintiff to the altar of justice bearing his sorrow and woe, which he humbly lays down before the ermine and the woolpack. He declares with solemn truth that he has been for more than one year past an actual resident in good faith of the State of Kansas, whose valiant sons await him in the arms of the State police court, this morning, begins with the following statement:

"Comes now the plaintiff to the altar of justice bearing his sorrow and woe, which he humbly lays down before the ermine and the woolpack. He declares with solemn truth that he has been for more than one year past an actual resident in good faith of the State of Kansas, whose valiant sons await him in the arms of the State police court, this morning, begins with the following statement:

All Members of an Inspection Party Thought to Have Perished.

RESCUERS DRIVEN BACK.

Met by Black Damp When Going to Assistance of Their Fellows.

BLUEFIELDS, W. Va., Nov. 23.—Superintendent Walsh of the Pocahontas Collieries Company, with State Mine Inspector William Priest, chief coal inspector, Morris St. Clair and William Graham, substitute coal inspectors; Frazier G. Bell, mining engineer, and Joseph Cardwell, manager of the Shamokin Coal Company, of Maryland, W. Va., composing a party of eight, entered the West mine of the Pocahontas Collieries Company, at 11 A. M. yesterday for the purpose of examining the true situation in regard to the recent explosion and fire in the Ruby mine.

Up to midday the party had not been heard from. It was supposed that the Ruby mine proper had been cut off from the West mine for the purpose of operating the West mine.

The large fan in the West mine had been started at an early hour and it was thought that all cases originating from there in the Ruby mine had been forced from the main portion and it was considered safe to enter.

All efforts are being used to recover the bodies of the missing party, but no hopes are entertained that any of them will be recovered alive.

At a distance of about 100 miles from the mine, a party consisting of experienced miners led by Assistant Superintendent King entered the mine to rescue the party of eight.

The large fan in the West mine had been started at an early hour and it was thought that all cases originating from there in the Ruby mine had been forced from the main portion and it was considered safe to enter.

All efforts are being used to recover the bodies of the missing party, but no hopes are entertained that any of them will be recovered alive.

MARRIED AFTER REUBEN'S ARREST.

With the intention of forcing Reuben Goldberg to marry her, Dora Shadlener, of No. 121 Osborne street, New York, made a serious affidavit against him this morning, begins with the following statement:

"Comes now the plaintiff to the altar of justice bearing his sorrow and woe, which he humbly lays down before the ermine and the woolpack. He declares with solemn truth that he has been for more than one year past an actual resident in good faith of the State of Kansas, whose valiant sons await him in the arms of the State police court, this morning, begins with the following statement:

"Comes now the plaintiff to the altar of justice bearing his sorrow and woe, which he humbly lays down before the ermine and the woolpack. He declares with solemn truth that he has been for more than one year past an actual resident in good faith of the State of Kansas, whose valiant sons await him in the arms of the State police court, this morning, begins with the following statement:

"Comes now the plaintiff to the altar of justice bearing his sorrow and woe, which he humbly lays down before the ermine and the woolpack. He declares with solemn truth that he has been for more than one year past an actual resident in good faith of the